Farm Conference Endorses Limitation Of Farm Crops

Washington, D. C., January 27.—Limitation of farm crop acreage until the present agricultural conditions in the United States and Europe are relieved, was endorsed by the National Agricultural Conference here today.

Stand Back of Adamson Law.

The Conference refused to recommend to Congress the repeal of the Adamson eight hour law by a vote of 83 to 68.

FIRST VOTE ON NEW PONTIFF EXPECTED TO COME THURSDAY

Rome, Italy, Jan. 27.—The secret conclave which will elect a successor to Pope Benedict XV will be Italian by a small majority. There will be 26 foreign Cardinals and 28 Italians. The fifty-four Cardinals expected to be here when the voting ceremony takes place will be closed with in the walls of the Vatican next week. The Cardinals will not be permitted to leave the Vatican until a decision is reached. Predictions as to the Cardinals who will be named have narrowed down to Cardinals Gamparri, Ratti, Merry Del Val, Mercier and La Fontaine. A two-third majority is necessary to elect. It is expected that a vote will be taken on Thursday next.

Carrying On With the American Legion

Daniel Chester French, sculptor, who created "The Minute Man at Concord" has been selected to design the memorial for Massachusetts dead in the World war which is to be erected somewhere along the American sector in France. Henry Bacon, designer of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., will be associated with him.

The Community House of Camp Chester, Mich., purchased by a Chicago company for $20,000, has been repurchased by the state of Michigan and will be presented to the American Legion for use as a hospital for sick and disabled veterans. The building will be improved at the expense of the state.

General Lafayette post of the American Legion, composed of New York City policemen, has mortgaged its Long Island clubhouse for $1,000, the money to be used in helping unemployed veterans. The policemen-legionnaires have pledged themselves to canvass their beats for jobs for their unfortunate "buddies."

"The Book of Misery" containing thousands of news-clippings and letters describing the plight of America's World war veterans in the recent period of unemployment will be presented to Congress by the Legion as documentary evidence in favor of relief for ex-service men.

Unemployed ex-servicemen sleeping in Bryant Park, New York, were awakened one recent night by the sound of a large news call. Seven hundred of the unfortunate men lined up for "relief." A committee representing the George Dillender Post of the American Legion, led the men to a restaurant where each was fed at the expense of the Legion post.

This Cat Business Is Looking Fishy

On Monday, January 16, while waiting for a train at Keating, City Engineer Hess saw and admired from a safe distance a snarling young wildcat which Station Agent R. E. Ewan had just purchased from a "Nigger Hill" native who had captured the cat in a trap and brought it into Keating in a box.

Ewan intended sending the young wildcat down to Col. Henry W. Shoemaker at McElhattan where this noted naturalist has a private preserve or zoo. Alas for the plans of men, when mighty hunters roam these woods and valleys unmolested.

It appears from all the dope at hand that a Clearfielder or two came thru Keating last Saturday and while this is not a strange circumstance in itself, when added to the fact that the wildcat, box and all, disappeared from its usual position outside the station door about the time the Clearfielders left, make the joint disappearance much more than a mere coincidence.

But here comes a real coincidence. Last evening as Engineer Hess with several companions was coming down Market Street, from the Rotary Club meeting, he noted a pair of wildcats hanging out in front of Stewart's drug store. With the party Hess stopped to look the cats over. A closeup view developed something familiar looking about the smaller cat and a more careful examination disclosed the fact that it was the self same cat he had seen a few days ago at Keating station. Now isn't that funny.

That cat must have escaped from the box somewhere between Clearfield and Keating and running across Otis Knapp in the wilds of Goshen laid down its life rather than leave him. Stranger than all that has gone before it is said that Knapp transacted business at Keating last Saturday, before he organized the wildcat hunt.

ULSTER RECOGNIZES IRISH FREE STATE

Belfast, Ireland, Jan. 27.—Ulster has recognized the Southern Provisional Government Sir James Craig here today. Michael Collins has similarly recognized the Ulster Government.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 27.—Two robbers today broke into the home of George Beezer, gagged Caroline Chin, a maid, tore off her clothes, scraped her skin with a potato peeler and rubbed salt into the wounds, according to the police.

Assistant Cashier H. T. Moss Refuses To Throw Up Hands:- Is Shot Down

$95,000 IS TAKEN

Pittsburgh, Pa., January 27.—Five unmasked bandits, entering the First National Bank of Crafton, near here today, shot and killed H. T. Moss, Assistant Cashier, and escaped with $95,000, after locking five other bank employees in a vault.

Pittsburgh, Pa., January 27.—A hundred detectives in a posse of automobiles pursued the five unmasked bandits who held up the First National Bank at Crafton, near here, this morning, shooting and fatally wounding Assistant Cashier H. T. Moss, aged 32.

Some Money Recovered.

Some of the bonds and cash which the robbers had seized was recovered by the detectives in a wrecked automobile in the North Side railroad yards. Hundreds of shots were fired by detectives at the fleeing bandits.

Elude Detectives.

The bandits were reported to have entrenched themselves in a house on Pennsylvania and Irwin Avenues, North Side, but police later said this was untrue and that they had lost track of them. Later reports to police headquarters were to the effect that the robbers had secured another automobile and were heading out into the rural sections.

Assistant Cashier Refused To Obey Command.

Officials of the Crafton bank state that the bandits drove up to the bank in a large car, walked leisurely into the bank, drew automatics and called "hands up." Assistant Cashier Moss, instead of complying, reached for his revolver. One of the bandits fired and Moss fell to the floor fatally wounded. The other employees and a woman customer were backed into the vault, while three of the robbers ransacked the money drawers and scraped up everything in sight. The bandits then started for the waiting machine. The entire robbery and getaway consumed less than five minutes.

One Bandit Loses Blood.

The police state that one and possibly more of the bandits have been wounded, as the sacks containing the bonds which were recovered, were covered with blood.

Check-up Reveals Loss.

Pittsburgh, Pa., January 27.—M. B. Johnston, teller of the bank, announced that a partial check-up reveals a theft of $30,000 in Liberty Bonds, a registry list and $15,000 in cash. The loot found in the automobile was taken to detective headquarters, but has not been counted. The Detective Bureau announced that the license plate used by the bandits was stolen several days ago from a North Side business house.

Hattiesburg, Mississippi, January 27.—Masked bandits early today forced the night watchman of the E. E. Girault Motor Company into a closet and escaped with $180,000 in cash and securities.

PREDICT ACQUITTAL FOR "FATTY" CASE IS NEARING CLOSE

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 27.—That Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle will be acquitted on the manslaughter charge on which he is being tried is taken almost as a foregone conclusion. Outside of District Attorney Brady's staff it is hard to find any one, even Hall of Justice attaches and police officials who think there is any chance of a conviction being obtained. While the defense attorneys are more than confident that a verdict of acquittal will be obtained, they are taking no chances. The bottom fell out of the state's case when Zey Provest and Alice Blake, two of its star witnesses failed to remember many important details of "Fatty's" party, although they have testified to many of these happenings at the former trial. The case probably will go to the jury on Saturday.

FORDSON TRACTORS TAKE BIG DROP

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 27.—Announcement was made here today that the price of the Fordson Tractor had been reduced to $395. This reduction was one of $20.

TWO TRAINMEN ARE KILLED IN TURTLE CREEK COLLISION

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 27.—Two were killed in a collision between two engines running light on the Union Railroad, three miles from Turtle Creek, early today. The dead are Jacob Atkinson, aged 35, the engineer and Eli B. Thompson, fireman. John O'Mara, conductor, was severely scalded and burned. According to J. C. Thompson, Superintendent, the accident was caused by misunderstanding of orders and signals. Both of the dead employees were on the same engine, the engineer and fireman of the other engines were not injured.

ROSSITER SUFFERS $25,000 FIRE LOSS

Rositter was early yesterday morning visited by a disastrous fire, the blaze wiping out four buildings erected on Main Street near the Brandon Hotel on the sites of those destroyed in the conflagration of August, 1920, when a large section of the town was burned. The loss in yesterday's conflagration is estimated at $25,000. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

EMERGENCY WHEAT TARIFF IS A BOON TO OUR FARMERS

Exports To United States Dropped 75 Per Cent In The Month Of December.

PRICES COMPARED

Washington, Jan. 27.—Quoting Montreal export figures of Canadian wheat to the United States during the last four months of 1921 as an instance of the effect of the Emergency tariff bill in protecting the American farmer, the Republican Publicity Association through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., says:

"Canadian exports of wheat to the United States during the month of December, 1921 were 3,365,000 bushels valued at $2,629,000, compared with 12,234,000 bushels valued at $24,797,000 for December, 1920, according to a report recently received from Montreal. During a period of four months ending December last, Canada exported to the United States 9,367,000 bushels of wheat worth $10,550,000, compared with 30,648,000 bushels valued at $69,475,000 for the corresponding period of 1920. The Emergency tariff law which became effective May 21st, 1921, was responsible for this decrease.

"Canadian exports of wheat flour to the United States also showed a marked decrease. In December of last year they totaled 83,000 barrels valued at $472,000, compared with 194,000 barrels valued at $1,985,000 in December of 1920, and for the four months period they totaled 250,656 barrels valued at $1,451,000 in 1921 compared with 532,366 barrels valued at $5,258,000 for the corresponding period of 1920.

"Democratic Congressmen of the Senator Pat Harrison and Representative Claude Kitchin type have repeatedly declared since the Emergency tariff law was passed that it had done nothing to help the agricultural interests of this country. The report from Montreal states:

"Exports of Canadian wheat to the United States during the month of December decreased 75 per cent in volume as compared with the wheat exports for December of the previous year, indicating the marked effect of the United States Emergency tariff."

"That is one answer to the Democrats who opposed the measure, and many others will be found if the statistics of imports of agricultural products for the period June-December, 1921 are compared with those of the corresponding period, 1920.

"It will be noted that the average price per bushel of Canadian wheat exported to the United States in December, 1920, was something under $2.03, while for December 1921, it was about $1.08. This indicates that the fall in wheat prices is general throughout the world, and not confined to the United States nor due to Republican policies as the Democrats would have us believe. Our own average export price for wheat in December, 1920, was $2.37, and in December, 1921, it was $1.21."

BILES ANNOUNCES CONTINUANCE OF SADLER POLICIES

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 27.—"Commissioner Sadler strove to give Pennsylvania the greatest highway system in the United States," said Deputy Commissioner Biles today and that continues to be the aim of the State Highway Department.

Mr. Biles' announcement followed the statement of Governor Smull that no new Commissioner would be appointed and that Biles would take official charge of the Department. During the coming season the Department will continue the work which has already been started under Commissioner Sadler. There are now under construction approximately 26 miles of roadway.

Bonus Bill Will Be Passed Within Two Months Is Plan

Washington, D. C., Jan. 27.—Congress today cleared the way for the Bonus Bill. The passage of the bill within two months was predicted following a caucus which adopted a resolution calling upon the Ways and Means committee to report out the bill and have it passed before the House until passed. Both the Senate and House leaders have waived aside Secretary Mellen's opposition to the bill and have disregarded his warning regarding the lack of funds to carry out its provisions.

DISTRICT NO. 2 OFFICIALS APPEAL TO FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FOR HELP

Editors Note: This article appeared in a great many newspapers yesterday but for some reason our press copy, if sent to us by Mr. Brophy at all, did not reach our desk. We make this statement in order to allay an impression that is apparently very much desired in some circles, namely that The Progress is antagonistic to organized labor. For the enlightenment of our readers we wish to state that Mr. Brophy has our invitation to use these columns as freely as he may desire.

Harding Told Of Distress In Coal Industry As A Result Of Unemployment; Ask If Government Is Helpless.

WANT U. S. INVESTIGATION

Clearfield, Pa., Jan. 27.—"Is the government helpless to evolve any plan for meeting the critical emergency of the miners?" ask officials of District No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, in an appeal addressed today to President Harding, Vice President Coolidge, the speaker of the House, members of Congress and the federal trade commission for relief from the present unemployment situation.

The appeal, which is signed by President John Brophy, Vice President James Mark and Secretary Treasurer Richard Gilbert, demands a "formal effective governmental investigation of labor conditions in the coal fields of the country."

"The undersigned, representing 43,000 coal miners in Central Pennsylvania," says the appeal, "have been directed by the executive board of District No. 2 of the United Mine Workers of America, to bring to the attention of the national government the facts of a serious situation and to ask of the government certain questions."

"The facts as we know them in our own wide district, comprising a large section of Pennsylvania, are, in brief, that a year's intermittent employment has left huge numbers of the miners with such depleted resources that in thousands of cases actual want confronts the miners' families, and in thousands of other cases the standards of living are going down. The miners of this district have averaged only from one to three days' work a week for nearly a year. Their resources in the midst of winter are vanishing. The present condition of thousands of our families should refute conclusively the reckless assertion of 'high war wages piled up by the miners.'"

"In the past few weeks our local and district organizations have been driven to attempt that which the coal industry should long ago have been forced to do under the government pressure. We are appropriating and paying out what small sums we can muster as a sort of unemployment relief—mere pittance in a great industry which has never been compelled to provide either steady work or insurance against unemployment."

"Through no fault of their own, miners in this district who, during the war, strained every muscle at the government's call to 'produce, produce, now find themselves with nothing to live on through the winter. Thousands of women and children lack the common necessities. Let alone any approach to an American standard of living."

"And what is true of our 43,000 miners is true of half a million more."

miners in union and non-union fields alike. We are no exception; it is the same in the middle west and the south and the far west. From the small collective resources of the locals and the district organizations pitiful doles are being dropped into a sea of demoralizing living conditions.

"The present managers of the coal industry have shown themselves helpless even to plan relief. Nursing their unreasonably war profits and watching only for rising prices, with vague expectations of a harvest reaped from a coal scarcity, they answer all our efforts for betterment with calls for reduced wages. They do not even pretend to prove that cutting wages would revive the chances of work. They admit that in the steel industry the wages of helpless, unorganized men have been ruthlessly slashed 40, 50 and even 60 per cent for the most of the past year, and still demand is only a fraction of normal."

"The operators' only cry is that we are to blame, and that our wages must come down to the level of the non-union fields, even though they know that, should such a thing happen, the non-union wages would promptly sink to new levels, and we should be called to drop again into a bottomless morass. They know, too, that the conditions of slack work characterize the non-union fields the same as ours, even with the lower non-union wages."

"We submit that in an industry which all agree is the worst ruin basic industry in the country a policy of trying to better conditions by taking it out on labor is no policy at all."

"The last fact to which we direct the government's attention is that conditions with us are far worse now than they were nearly four months ago, when the president summoned his unemployment conference. That conference has recently reported, pointed principally to certain local measures of relief taken at its instigation. Not one local measure has been taken in all the vast district where our miners wait for work. Except for what we read in newspapers we would think from the actual facts here that the national government had never made even a gesture indicating knowledge of our plight. These are severe words. The facts are more severe."

"From our representatives we learn that that conference gave little consideration to the definite plans of the miners as submitted by International President John L. Lewis. We are, therefore, forced to ask these questions:

"Is the government helpless to evolve any plan for meeting the critical emergency of the miners?"

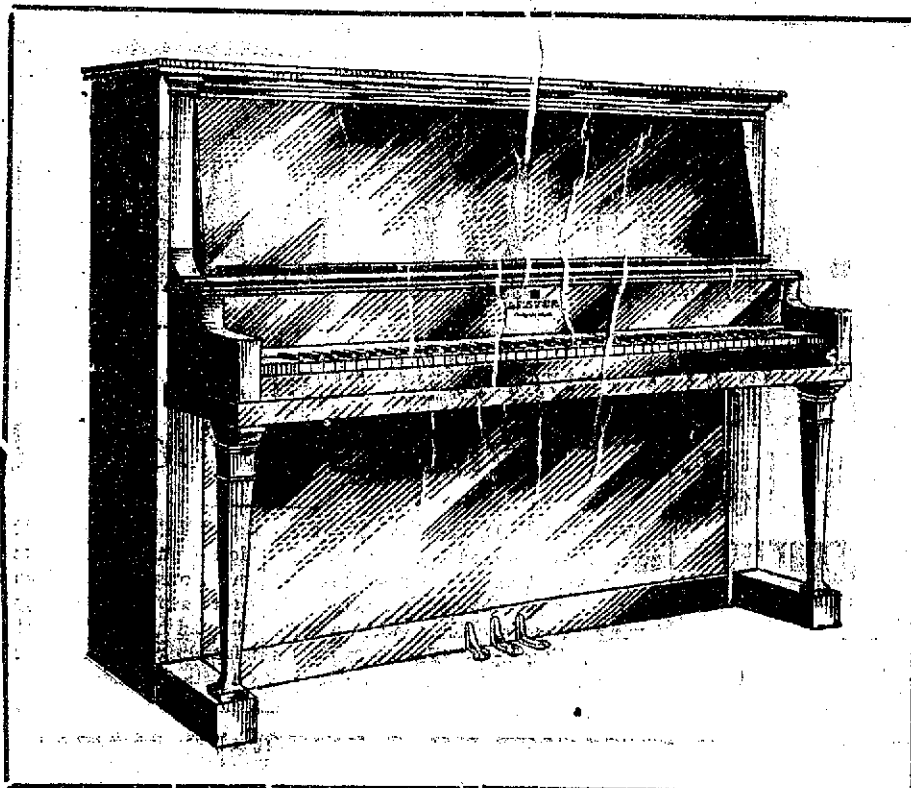

"Are the increasing want and distress to be left to whatever doles the slightly more fortunate miners can afford to part with?"

"Is there not even a government agency to which the facts can be presented?"

"Is the only noticeable motion of the government to be the measure taken when desperate miners rebel in strikes?"

"If the government confesses itself barren to plans, should not the government give ear to what plans the miners have? At the very least we can exercise our right of petition for an inquiry into the facts and a hearing for our proposals. We demand such a formal effective governmental investigation."

MAKES CITIZENS OF ALIENS

Americanization Committee of Montana
Most Successful in Preparing Applicants for Naturalization.

Training aliens for citizenship has been successfully carried out by the Americanization committee of the Great Falls (Mont.) post of the American Legion. A class of 37 aliens has just finished preparation for naturalization under direction of the Legion committee and 27 of them were admitted to citizenship. This was an unusually high percentage according to the naturalization officer.

Another class of 134 foreigners is now in training for the citizenship test. They receive instructions from the Legion committee twice a week. Following the course of instruction they are subjected to preliminary examinations to determine their fitness for citizenship.

Many Graves are Unmarked.

Because of a shortage of government grave-markers and the failure of congress to appropriate funds for their purchase, the graves of thousands of Americans killed overseas are unmarked in this country, according to a report of the American Legion, held at Washington. The Legion's legislative committee will petition the congress to set aside sufficient funds to allow the purchase of a marker for each grave, as required by law.

METHODISTS WERE HOMELESS AND A LUTHERAN GAVE AID

The Men's Bible Class of the West Side Methodist Sunday School held their monthly social session last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schenck on Clearfield street and had a most delightful time.

For fear our Lutheran brethren might fear our good Methodist friends might be attempting a little proselyting, we want to explain how it happened that the Methodists were making merry in the home of a good Lutheran church members. It was all due to the real Christian charity which animates the hearts of West Side christians regardless of sect or creed. The Bible class was scheduled to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Orvis McCloskey, but Health Officer Gaulin interfered with the program by tacking on a whooping cough quarantine sign on the house during the afternoon. When apprised of the circumstances, like the good neighbors they are, Mr. and Mrs. Schenck opened their house and took their Methodist brethren in.

They had some time, too. It proved to be one of the most delightful sessions of the season. Russell M. Haney presided and after transacting some business affairs, opened the social session by making way for a friend of Bro. W. B. Holmes, who said he broke into the gathering to get a way from a cullud brother, who was pursuing him with a razor. Banks denied all knowledge of the fellow who then proved to be Clyde better known as "Soup" Johnson. "Soup" had a real darkey make-up and easily put one over on the crowd for a minute or two. His explanation and following monologue were real regains and were greatly enjoyed by all.

Happy little talks were made by Rev. Snively, W. B. Holmes, John Boyce, Cal. Johnson, P. T. Flaherty and others.

Warm Welcome for "Legion" Steamer.
After having clipped ten hours off the record run between New York and Rio de Janeiro, the all-American-owned steamer American Legion, has returned to New York, following her maiden voyage. The vessel, with the majority of its crew members of the Legion, was greeted in every South American port it touched by Legion posts. Along the Platte river from Montevideo to Buenos Ayres, the captain reported, launches put out from shore and their owners cracked bottles of wine and champagne over the bow plates of the ship as she slowly made her way up the river. This, he said, was the South American Legionnaires' way of expressing their welcome.

Woman's Complex Life

Woman's complex life with its multitudinous calls is given as the reason for many a nervous breakdown. Home work, social obligations, dress making and the care of children keep the 20th century woman in a whirlwind of activity until headaches, develop, backache, nervousness and oftentimes more serious ills which are peculiar to her sex alone. Such women should not despair but be guided by the letters so often published in this paper from women who have been in just such conditions, but who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This is a root and herb medicine that contains no drugs and can be taken in safety by any woman.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By "Skinney"

A writer in the Altoona Tribune Forum of recent date contributed the following interesting article which we give space by request:

Your paper of Jan. 20 contains a news item from Rome, Italy, of even date, stating that somewhere secreted in that city was the warrant rendered by Pontius Pilate, acting Governor of Lower Galilee, condemning Jesus Christ to suffer death on the cross. If genuine this is a notable addition to the priceless relics of the antiquarian. It is not for the purpose of discussing the merits of this discovery, however, that I write, but the story reminds me of another remarkable document pertaining to the life of Christ which is, perhaps, little known to the reading public but seems to be well authenticated. It is a letter said to have been written or dictated by the Master himself, and in contradistinction to the instrument executed by Pilate is a message both of love and promise.

A tradition relates that while Christ was working His miracles in Palestine the report of His divine power spread throughout Asia Minor until it reached the ears of Abgar, the Prince of Edessa in Mesopotamia. Abgar was afflicted with leprosy, and he is said to have written a letter to Christ beseeching Him to journey to Edessa and heal the Prince or his disease. To this appeal the legend says, Christ dictated a reply by the hand of St. Thomas the Apostle, and after the crucifixion St. Thomas sent Thaddaeus, one of the seventy to Edessa, where he cured Abgar.

The tradition is first found recorded by the Greek writer Eusebius in his "Ecclesiastical History" written about the year 330. In the year 494 the Roman church declared the letter of Christ to be fictitious, but the Greek church has never made any such declaration. Among those scholars who have accepted the letter as authentic are: Billington and the German theologian, Wette. Following is a translation of the message of Abgar to Christ:

"Abgar, prince of Edessa, to Jesus, the merciful savior, who has appeared in the country of Jerusalem, greeting: I have been informed of the prodigies and cures wrought by you without the use of herbs or medicines, and by the efficacy of your words alone. I am told that you enable cripples to walk; that you force devils from the bodies possessed; that there is no disease, however incurable, which you do not heal and that you restore the dead to life. These wonders convince me that you are some god descended from the heaven, or that you are the Son of God. For this reason I have taken the liberty of writing this letter to you, beseeching you to come and see me and to cure me of the indisposition under which I have so long labored. I understand that the Jews persecute you, number at your miracles and plan your destruction. I have here a beautiful and pleasant city, which though it be not very large, will be sufficient to supply you with everything that is necessary."

Here is the typical answer sent by Jesus Christ to Abgar:

"You are happy, Abgar, thus to have believed in me without having seen me; for it is written to me that they who shall see me will not believe in me, and they that have never seen me shall believe and be saved. As to the desire you express in receiving a visit from me, I must tell you that all things for which I am come must be fulfilled in the country where I am. When this is done, I must return to Him who sent me. And when I am departed hence, I will send to you one of my disciples, who will cure you of the disease of which you complain and give life to you and those that are with you."

These letters with part of the data given above, appeared some fifteen years ago in The Scrip-Book, a magazine that reproduced many rare and curious literary treasures.

The officials of a Wisconsin State Bank recently conceived the idea that a pretty young woman as teller might have a "taking way" about the bank and result in increased deposits. They hired one and the second day when she went to lunch she failed to return and the officials found the young lady's "taking ways" had resulted in a shortage of $1542 in the bank's surplus cash. A sour faced male teller is now receiving the deposits.

MR. DAVIS ASSUMES DUTY ENFORCING PROHIBITION LAW

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 27.—Rev. John T. Davis, of Blairsville, the new Federal Prohibition Director of Pennsylvania, today took charge of the Prohibition office here. He arrived today from Washington, where his appointment was announced. The new director announced that his first move would be to resign from the State Legislature and his position with the Y. M. C. A. Davis stands for rigid enforcement of Prohibition. "I realize," he said, "that I have a big task before me but if hard work will put it over I am here to do it."

The Rev. John T. Davis was appointed Prohibition director of Pennsylvania yesterday. After D. H. Blair, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, announced the appointment, Mr. Davis, a member of the State Legislature, as was his predecessor, William C. McConnell, was sworn into office. Then at two o'clock the new director conferred with Roy H. Haynes, Prohibition Commissioner and S. F. Rutter who virtually replaced McConnell several months ago. Director Davis was directed to clean up the state thoroughly. He left Washington at 4 o'clock to begin the task.

"Pennsylvania is to be congratulated upon the appointment," Commissioner Haynes said in a statement this afternoon. "Mr. Davis should be given the solid support of patriotic law abiding citizenship of the great Keystone State."

Sensor Pepper, one of the supporters of Director Davis' candidacy announced he had recommended his selection on "the principle that the duty of enforcing an important law should be conferred on those who are friends of the measure."

"The appointment of Mr. Davis is entirely acceptable to Governor Sproul," Senator Pepper continued, as well as to Senator Crow and the State organization, but it is a non-political appointment in the sense that his strength did not depend upon political endorsement but rather upon the fact that he is trusted by friends of Prohibition throughout the State.

"This is a case therefore, in which the candidate of any leader or group of leaders has been selected in preference to the candidate of some other group. It is a case in which the situation seemed to require an appointment upon the principle first above mentioned."

The recommendation was made to the Treasury Department on Saturday 1-4's 96.92, Victory 3 3-4's 100.25.

One Big Thing

Sometimes a man will be a most excellent business man in everything, and yet neglect one very important matter.

He will carefully look after his business to the smallest detail, but overlook one big thing.

He will look out for the happiness of his family, and yet neglect to provide assurances for his family's future comfort and happiness.

Everyone should make a will. The Clearfield Trust Company makes a business of taking care of estates. Let it look after yours.

The telegram was as follows: "Please withhold your endorsement for Director of Prohibition for Pennsylvania until you hear from me. W. E. Crow, Mercy Hospital." "This telegram, naturally was accepted at the Treasury Department as authentic and as a sufficient reason for delay. I felt sure however, that the telegram was not genuine—first, because of the hour at which it was sent, second, because of the terms in which it was couched, and third, because I was sure that Senator Crow in telegraphing to his colleague would not send an independent telegram to the appointing power. Prompt investigation proved that Senator Crow was entirely ignorant that any such telegram had been sent, and when disavowing the message, he took occasion to express approval of the appointment of Mr. Davis."

Love "thinketh no evil," imputes no malice, sees the bright side, puts the best construction on every action. What a delightful state of mind to live in! What a stimulus and help to meet with it for a day.

Practice Cheerfulness.
Cheerfulness ought to be the vitalizing force of our life to the old, age without cheerfulness is a lifeless winter without a sun, and this spirit of cheerfulness should be encouraged in our youth if we would have the benefit of it in our old age. Time will make a generous wine more mellow, but it will turn that which is early on the fret, to vinegar.—Caltoun.

TOOTH BRUSH PURCHASES Profitable Now

Prices on tooth brushes are particularly low now and we can assure you that the qualities are particularly high. Don't continue to use the old brush too long. Remember it is used to clean your mouth and your teeth. It accumulates the dirt that is removed therefrom and therefore is unhealthy to cling on to it too long. Better buy a new one.

PORTRAYS LIFE OF ST. PAUL

Rev. C. M. Teufel gave another strong sermon in the Lutheran church last night. His theme was "Sacrifice impossible in the Christian life." He vividly portrayed the life of St. Paul showing what he gave up for the Cause of Christ and yet he could say "For whom I have suffered the loss of all things and do count them but dung that I may win Christ." What we give to the Lord is returned many fold. Nothing given to Him is ever lost. The best investment we can make is to invest this life in the service of Christ. You have nothing to lose and All to gain.

REPORT OF JOHN A. STOCK, Desertion-Probation Officer.

From January 1st, 1921, to January 1st, 1922.

The following report is respectfully submitted:
Number of cases in which I was consulted and in which no legal action was taken 251
Number of desertion and non-support cases in which warrants were issued 26
Warrants for A. & B. between husband wife, which cases were turned over to me for settlement and nolles pros entered 3
New F. & B. cases 25
Supposed insanity 1
Guardianship appointments for full orphans 5

Total number of cases 311
Of the 26 warrants that were issued, 18 were heard by the Court, 1 by jury sentenced to the penitentiary, 4 were settled by me ready for the Court's approval, and 3 are pending.

Out of the 26 warrants that were issued, but 8 of them were issued with my knowledge and approval and the balance were issued either without my knowledge or after my disapproval.

The counselling in my office, as well as in all parts of the county, accounts for the small number of warrants being issued with my knowledge. The additional number of new cases, especially the F. & B. cases, added to the ones already on my books, annually increases the amount of my office work.

Collections in desertion and non-support cases and for the support of illegitimate children for the year 1921 amounted to $12,223.52. The reason why collections for 1920 and 1921 were almost the same in amount is because in 1920 about ten years' advance payments were made to me by defendants.

Comparative Statement
Year	No. Cases	Collections
1914	95	$ 719.00
1916	157	3,194.23
1918	129	6,076.06
1920	282	12,094.79
1921	311	12,223.52

CURWENSVILLE

At the adjourned meeting of Council, held Jan. 23, 1922, the following elections were held:

Chief of Police—Guy B. Clark; Street Commissioner, Wm. L. Dale; Boro Solicitor, Roland D. Swoope, Esq.

Geo. L. Benner was confirmed as Chief of the Fire Department; Councilman Sweeney, Hile and Fullerton were named as a committee to draft resolutions to present to Hugh M. Irwin and Elizabeth G. Irwin for their gift of the Pee Wee's Nest Park to the Borough of Curwensville.

The following committees for the two year term were then announced: Finance—Councilmen Hile, Hess and Moore.

Street and Light—Councilmen Fullerton, Hess and Sweeney. Sidewalks—Councilmen Moore, Hile and Fullerton.

Drainage and Water—Councilmen Small, Sweeney and Fullerton.

Public Buildings and Fire Dept.—Councilmen Sweeney, Hile and Small.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Jane Bailey was held Thursday afternoon from the home of her cousin, Mrs. James Cassidy on Thompson street.

Curwensville is to have a curfew. On and after Feb. 1, 1922, all children under 16 years of age must be in their homes at nine o'clock unless accompanied by parents. This is a wise move for there are entirely too many of our young folks on our streets late at night, to the detriment of both their health and morals, to say nothing of their education.

Miss Jean Punchios is spending some time at the home of Wm. Mamma at Naudon.

Misses Margaret Gorman and Verna Brown and Messrs Russel Pentz and Ralph Bennett attended a party at Geo. Punchios' at Pleasant Grove.

Mrs. Allen Passmore who has been quite ill, is able to be about the house again.

Master Blair Post has been confined to the house with an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Ernest Post spent Thursday with friends in Hyde.

Mrs. Wm. Mamma has returned from a pleasant visit with her home folks in New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yeager, of DuBois, are pleasant visitors in the home of Mr. Albert Maurey.

Mrs. Fred Robison has as her guest Miss Lottie Miller on Clearfield.

Wm. Holden has sold his home on Walnut street to Jas. Hunschreys, who will occupy same. Mr. Holden will move his family to Clearfield where he is building a home.

Mrs. O. C. Ardary was hostess to the Mother's Meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary McNaull was a Clearfield visitor today.

Mrs. Martha Guppy, of Clearfield, has a Curwensville shopper on Thursday.

Bill Fivcher, of Philadelphia is the guest of his friend Andy Anderson on the South Side.

Mrs. Tom Cross, of Irwin Hill, is a surgical patient in the Clearfield Hospital.

Mrs. Clyde Wriglesworth and Mrs. Flisha Davis, of Grampian, were shopping in town yesterday.

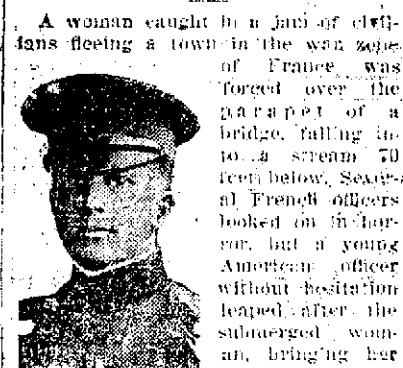

Dave Cohen, of New York, is the guest of Mr. J. Kantar.

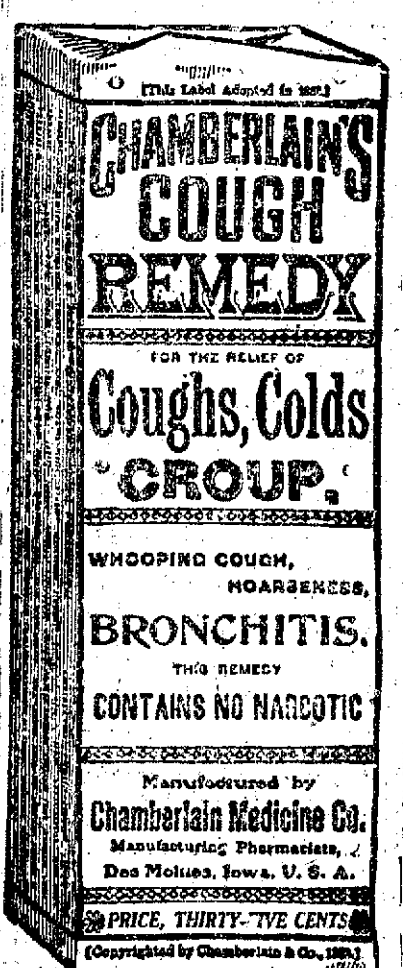

Mrs. Harry Addlemen has been quite ill of tonsillitis and pneumonia but is now very much improved.

Arkansas Doughboys Settle on Adjoining Tracts in Oklahoma and Form 2,500-Acre Colony.

They are leading their sword into places as the military way of carrying that veterans of the World war are coming back to the farm.

In Arkansas, on a 2,500-acre tract, a "company" of sixteen former service men descended from Tulsa, Okla., and settled on adjoining quarter-sections of land. All of them were members of the Joe Carson post of the American Legion and they plan to establish a trading center and town under the name "Legionville."

The doughboys will be in Soon county. Most of the settlers will be able to call the land their own in seven months as the state allows two years of war service to count on the residence requirement.

Some of the men will spend the winter on their land, clearing timber, building, hunting and trapping. It is estimated that 100 service men of Tulsa ultimately will settle on government land.

Progress Job Work Satisfies.

HOW TO CURE UNEMPLOYMENT

Secretary of Labor, Writing in Legion Weekly, Tells How Situation May Be Relieved.

Writing in the American Legion Weekly on "Seeking the Cure for Unemployment," James J. Davis, secretary of labor, sums up the cure in a single paragraph as follows:

"Wage carriers can help by giving up unreasonable demands, so that employers can afford to start their mills again, or so that buildings can be built—houses, schools, factories, stores. Merchants can help by giving up unreasonable profits, so that more people can afford to buy clothing, furniture, food and general supplies. The landlord can help by lowering unreasonable rents, so that workmen can afford to accept a wage that shall be a living wage as rents are lowered."

TWO THOUSAND KIDS WITH SPUDS FOR TICKETS CLAMOR FOR 750 MOVIE SEATS

There was some time down about kiddies had been arranged, and the Liberty Theatre yesterday afternoon. Manager Driggs had donated potatoes, large or small, quantities the same. The doors were to open after the Aid Society for the benefit of the Children's Home. A program for the school, with the result that by 4 o'clock every kid in the town with his hands full of potatoes was in front of the theatre attempting to get inside to see the show.

How to seat two thousand kids in the 750 seats is a trick of the show game even Manager Driggs hasn't learned. The result was that the theatre was soon jammed to the doors with just twice as many clamorous kiddies on the outside unable to get in. They stuck on the job for some time but were finally induced to leave their taters for the Children's Home kiddies and go home on Manager Driggs promise that all who will work out a schedule for the next show on Feb. 3d and everybody will be given an opportunity to see the show without any disappointments. Announcement of the program and arrangements will be made in due time.

THIS SURPRISE A BOOMERANG

A number of their friends decided to tender Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Kneeb of South Fourth Street a birthday surprise party last evening. They wanted it to be a real surprise and it was. The secret was so carefully kept from the persons to be honored that Mr. and Mrs. Kneeb never heard a whisper of it. In fact they made arrangements to spend the evening away from home and when the party arrived at the Kneeb home they were unable to get in. Thinking the Kneeb were down town for a little while, the party went into the house of a neighbor to await their return, but finally had to compromise by surprising their unexpected hosts by making the party at their home.

This is one surprise that worked.

A Successful Man

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines was Dr. R. V. Pierce. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line.

Over fifty years ago this noted physician gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equaled for the weaknesses of women. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all then treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening pains, and for the many disorders common to women in all times of life. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it in both tablet and fluid form.

Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. Write for free medical advice.

HAVE YOU TASTED OUR PORK AND BEANS?

Then you've got something coming to you. We take hand selected beans and put in a plentiful addition of rich home fed pork and bake them as we only know how to bake them. Lots of folks come here and take a lot of the beans home with them. Sort of take them home as a treat, like candy. Try them once—and you'll eat them often.

Trials All Have Value.

Trials without discovery forces within. Says Victor Hugo: "There are instincts for all the crises of life." A deep perplexity awakens a flash of insight; a bitter opposition sets the soul on fire; a grave peril opens our eyes to horses and chariots of fire; a severe catastrophe evokes a heroism of which the sufferer had not thought himself capable.—W. L. Watkinson.

HAS YOUR KIDNIE SAID ANYTHING ABOUT EYES BEING BAD?

Has anything been said about difficulty in seeing the board when the teacher writes anything there? If there has an eye-kidnie's report card is not what it should be, bring that kidnie to me and allow me to examine his eyes.

NEARBY COASTING ACCIDENTS SHOULD WARN CLEARFIELDERS TO BE CAREFUL

Constant Wargny, 12 year old son of A. Charles Wargny, of Bell avenue, Punxsutawney, president of the Eldred Window Glass Company, died in the Adrain hospital at 4:30 o'clock this morning of injuries received last evening while coasting on Park avenue. Yesterday marked the 12th anniversary of the boy's birth.

With Leo Fullerton, a chum, the Wargny boy, who was known to his friends as "Pat", spent considerable time coasting on small hills near the Wargny home on Bell avenue. Finally the boys decided to try the long hill starting just east of Bell avenue and leading past the Jenks Hill school house and down Grafius avenue to the Elk Run trestle.

The Wargny boy lay prone upon the sled and Fullerton knelt behind him. The hill is a mass of ice and the sled gained great speed. At the sharp turn in front of the Jenks Hill school building young Wargny attempted to guide the sled around the sharp turn. It failed to respond most in two parts. That kidney was critical about the body that a blow and skidded sharply to the right, removed. He recovered from the crash and landed on the sidewalk but the effects of the crash were not believed at first that he was seriously hurt.

He was taken to his home and physicians summoned who quickly determined that he was suffering from internal hemorrhages. At 11 o'clock he was taken to the Adrain hospital where an operation was performed at once. This disclosed that the post had cut the child's right kidney almost in two parts. That kidney was critical about the body that a blow and skidded sharply to the right, removed. He recovered from the crash and landed on the sidewalk but the effects of the crash were not believed at first that he was seriously hurt.

Nick Dofolad, aged 22, of 490 West Dofolad avenue, right leg badly cut, shin skinned and bruised.

A young Williams girl and a girl named Varner also had their ankles severely strained and received medical attention, while several others of those on the two sleds were cut or bruised badly enough to require attention of physicians.

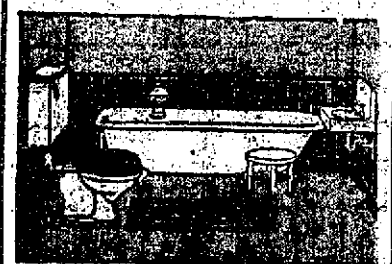

The cause of the accident is unknown. Stories told by eyewitnesses and others on the hill indicate that they are convinced that the driver of the east bound sled was out of the common path.

Alas, Too True.

WAR WORKER AIDS JOBLESS

Entertainer During Conflict Enlists to Help Unemployed Ex-Service Men in New York.

Miss Elsie Wood will be remembered by many ex-service men for her work as an entertainer of the Y. M. C. A. corps in France. With her own troupe of young women she spent a year cheering the doughboys in the overseas camps. Her service how ever, did not end with the war. She has enlisted to help the unemployed ex-service men in New York.

When "The Man Without a Country," the film-version of Edward Everett Hale's historical story, was shown in New York under auspices of the American Legion, Miss Wood volunteered her services, and at each performance read the preamble to the constitution of the Legion and gave a patriotic reading. The proceeds from the show were used in the welfare work among jobless ex-service men.

Knife vs. Wife.

"Most men," began the almost philosopher, "are aware that it is bad manners to eat with their knife, but lots of them also forget that it is sometimes bad policy to eat with their wife."
